Only another month now—June 1—and the Hooper family will be here for their annual two months' outing. This will be their tenth season here.

At the Book Shop tonight Herbert Heron is to read from the works of a living poet—Rudyard Kipling. The tenth and last reading in the series of English Poets will be given next Thursday, with selections from John Masefield's poems. There should be a large attendance on both occasions.

Hoover Vacuum Cleaners at Holman's.

A party of Pacific Grove folks, including Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Harper and three children, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gregory and three sons, Mrs. Francis, and Miss Ada Reyburn, motored to the River Carmel one day last week. They got the limit—of fresh air.

W. S. Cooper and D. L. James, both of whom will take part in this summer's Western Drama Society play, will be here shortly to advise in the selection of a production and the casting of it.

The weekly moving picture show took place last night. Now all is clear for the Manzanita Club Masque Ball on Saturday night. There will be a big crowd and lots of fun. Don't miss it.

With plans to return here in the Fall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoo of Oakland and Misses Myra and Mary Moore of San Ramon, left on Monday for their homes. They are friends of Miss E. A. McLean.

He's back! Who? Dave You Needa. He has been employed for some time up near Medford, Oregon. He is in good health and glad to be here again. And he's still proud to call himself a "Red."

Rolland Bookless of Champaign, Ill., is a guest at the Busey ranch in Carmel Valley. He will shortly occupy the Lisk house here.

The annual meeting of the Carmel Club of Arts and Crafts takes place next Tuesday evening. Reports of officers, general business and election of officers should induce a large attendance.

Spring Millinery at Holman's

Mrs. Margaret Williams and Tippy and Marnee plan to leave for New York about June 15, to join author Michael Williams, who left about a month ago.

Tomorrow afternoon, at the rectory, Saint Annes Guild will give a tea. Ladies are invited. 25c.

Mrs. J. V. Christy and children, who occupied their "Solid Comfort" cottage here last week, returned to San Jose Monday morning, and would not have returned then but for school opening.

After a week's vacation, the last lap in this public school term commenced Monday morning. Nearly all the old pupils and some new ones were at their desks.

Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Dorward and son will be back here this week, to remain some time. They will occupy the Fowler house near the beach.

Donald Hale returned to Fullerton, Orange county, last week, to resume the position in the oil fields which he held prior to his enlistment in the army.

We'll Double Again

It is an old story. Carmelo Precinct has gone "over the top." This time our record has been maintained in the drive for the Victory Loan.

For the Fourth Liberty Loan of six billion our quota was $20,000; we subscribed $42,000. Our quota for the four and a billion Victory Loan is $15,000. Last Monday evening, the end of the seventh day of the campaign, our total had reached $15,150, and we were "over." On Tuesday evening we had $22,250. Then it was that local chairman W. T. Kibbler said, "We'll double our quota."

If you have not subscribed, do so, in order that we may "double."

The Coming Election

With Tuesday July 1, officially set by the Legislature as the date of the Forty Million Dollar Bond Election, it is necessary that all men and women be properly registered.

Those who did not register in Carmelo Precinct in 1918 and who wish to vote here this year must register before May 31 in order to vote on July 1.

The election is held on July 1 instead of August 26, the date originally set, so that the money will be available in time to play a part in solving the soldiers' employment problem.

IN MONTEREY

(A Memory of Robert Louis Stevenson)

When long ago he wandered here,
Heart-hungered, sick and poor,
No roof was bent to shelter him;
No welcome at the door.
In all the streets of Monterey
With sun and shine aflame,
No word was passed that they might know
The Prince of Dreamers came.

There sped no song to meet him
From lute or lifted lyre,
When here the Master Singer passed
To seek his heart's desire;
No hand was raised to help him,
No lips with cheer to greet,
Till, worn with fast and weariness,
He fainted at their feet.
Then one there was who lifted up
The fever-tortured head,
And took him to his pitying heart,
And gave him drink and bread;
He gave him shelter and a bed,
Nor asked his name to know—
And of all the men in Monterey,
It is to him I'll go.

For, 'tis the tale I love the best
These wandering trails among,
When, from the ancient Mission tower
The Angelus is rung—
This tale of him whose songs I sing,
Though dead he lies and still,
"The sailor who is home from sea,
The hunter from the hill."

—JOHN S. McGROARTY.

WEEKLY GREETING

There is nothing strange about great men; they are like us, only deeper, higher, broader; they think as we do, only with more intensity; they suffer as we do, more deeply; they love as we do, more tenderly.—David Grayson ew Issue Has Special Appeal to All Investors, Says Expert.

"Capitalists, as well as the small investor, may purchase the new Victory Loan notes with the fullest assurance that they will hold in the market close to the issue price," declared G. K. Weeks, Victory Loan campaign manager for the Twelfth District, today in calling attention to the strong appeal the Victory notes make to investors strictly from an investment standpoint. He continued:

"It has, of course, been a source of disappointment to subscribers for previous Liberty Loan issues that these issues have gone, even temporarily, to a discount of five or six points in the market.

"While this does not represent a real loss to those who have held their bonds for investment, it is reassuring to subscribers for Victory notes that no such discount is possible in the case of the present issue.

"Discount Impossible."

"A decline of the Victory Loan notes of only one point, to 99 for example, would put them on an interest return of 5.03%. Even during the war, with the prospect of continued large issues, no Liberty Bonds have ever declined to any such basis. The Fourth Loan bonds today, as a matter of fact, are selling to yield less than the 4¼% paid by the Victory notes at par.

"A similar situation exists in the case of the series of 3¾% fully tax-exempt notes which are suitable for the larger investors. The first issue of the fully tax-exempt Liberty Bonds bearing 3½% interest, in spite of all the liquidation during the war, are selling today to yield only 3.55%.

"Should the Victory Loan 3¾% notes decline to 99, this would be equivalent to a 4.03% return from its fully tax-exempt note, which would be equivalent to 91 for the Liberty Loan 3½s which now are in active demand in the market at 99."

Great American's Words Ring True Today as When Spoken.

"Long after this war is over, we shall continue in the struggle to achieve liberty for all mankind. To do it effectively, we must bind ourselves together as a nation, and there is no surer bond between a man and his country than that he shall be a bondholder of his country."

"There should be Liberty Bonds in every home in America."

"I appeal most earnestly to the men and women of America to lend their money to the government; and to do it now!"

"I myself have invested in these bonds. There is every reason for buying them. The patriotic reason is enough. But, in addition, there is offered the best security in the world, backed by the credit of the government and people of the United States."

"The outstanding and fundamental need of the government, without which nothing can be accomplished, is money, in large sums and small."

Dance at the Highlands

Last Saturday evening a jolly informal dance was held at Carmel Highlands Inn by the young folks at the Inn and a number from Carmel. The Carmel Orchestra added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Sometwenty couples were present.

The success of the affair was so pronounced that weekly subscription dances may be the result. Will those interested please leave their names at the Pine Cone office. It was suggested that to dine at the Highlands and spend the evening dancing at least once a week, possibly Friday, would be delightful.

On Thursday evening last Mrs. Frank H. Powers gave a dinner of twelve covers. Those who participated were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Criley; Miss Birkmaier; Mr. T. S. Parkhurst of the Highlands; Miss Anne Bremer and Marian Doree, both San Francisco artists, occupying the Criley cabin; Mr. and Mrs. John Reid; Mr. and Mrs. William Potter; Miss M. De-Neale Morgan and Mr. McLaughlin from Carmel.

Mother Carrington's Acknowledgement

There are times when words fail; when one cannot place upon paper phrases adequate to express the feeling of the heart within. For years I dreamed of a home all my own, where I could enjoy in peace and contentment, the closing years of life, but this dream-home had been visible only in the mists. Now, when least expected, a magic wand is waved and my wonderful aircastle becomes a reality.

When the clouds were darkest and the way was hard and rough, loyal hearts conceived the plan and loving hands made possible the realization of my life's desire.

To one and all who have been instrumental in the making of my home, I wish to express my sincere thanks; to say, "God bless you." My heart is full to overflowing with love, gratitude and appreciation too deep for words to express. May I prove worthy.

Warm House-Warming

Friends of Mrs. C. L. Carrington gave her an old-fashioned house-warming last week when she moved into her new home down by the dunes. Twenty-four friends came over from Pacific Grove, and, together with Carmel folks, they spent the day in propitiatory ceremonies to the Lares and Penates of the newly-built home.

They went through the good luck ritulary, they planted a friendship garden, they tossed salt, they performed the solemn rites of the candle, and various other abracadabra devices to gain the favor of the household gods. Then they played and sang and feasted. Franklin Murphy played to selections on the piano, Mabel Todd read a poem entitled "The Friendship Garden."

It was late in the evening before the company broke up, ending the day's activities and ceremonies with "Old Lang Syne"
